RAW: EL LIBRITO PARA COLOREAR

Volumen 1 de 1 · Edición “Para Fans Certificados (que no existen todavía)” apto para todo público · requiere crayones, no requiere criterio editorial

The image shows the word "RAW" in a large, bold, sans-serif font. The letters are white with a black outline, making them suitable for coloring. The 'R' has a thick vertical stem and a curved shoulder. The 'A' is composed of two slanted strokes meeting at a point, with a horizontal crossbar. The 'W' is formed by two 'V' shapes joined together, with a central vertical stroke.

EDITORIAL NOTICE

This coloring supplement is furnished for informational and recreational purposes only, in connection with the press materials of Raw, a community rating platform. No representation, warranty, or endorsement — express or implied — is made regarding the fitness of crayons, colored pencils, or any other coloring medium for use with this document.

The publisher assumes no liability for stray marks outside the lines, broken crayon tips, or disputes arising between siblings over the last remaining orange marker. Reproduction of this document for commercial resale is discouraged but, frankly, unlikely to be profitable.
